A photograph of a crowd of people, mostly young adults, looking through a white metal fence. In the background, a large, three-dimensional sign spells out the word 'OUT' in capital letters. The scene appears to be outdoors at night or in a dimly lit area. The people have various expressions, some looking directly at the camera, others looking towards the sign. A man in a white baseball cap and glasses is visible in the upper right, looking towards the sign. A woman with long blonde hair is in the lower right, looking towards the camera. A man with curly hair is in the lower left, looking towards the camera. The overall tone is one of anticipation or protest.

Boom-Bah! Eh?

On November 18th, Shep was visited by Mark Sharenbroich (a.k.a. Shake-n-bake). Nubs, Aggie, grade 1, writing notes, trying to unfold them (incompetent boys), high school, drugs, rock'n roll, AIDS, understanding, football, Gerber babies, racism, choose life over existence, sex - if you laugh you're not ready, love yourself, love others, kiss the mirror every day, you don't look like your mom or your dad - you look like yourself, and remember ... WE'RE ALL STARS!

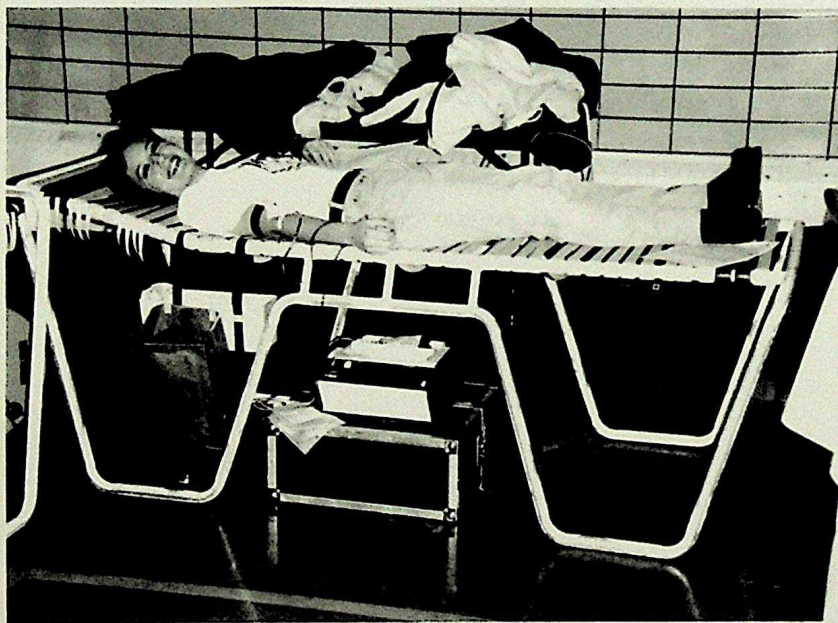

Remembrance Day

Again this year we would like to thank the music and drama departments for paying a special tribute to all those men and women who have died in war while supporting our country and its allies.

Blood Donor Clinic

Both the blood donor clinic and Dracula were popular this year. Grade 12's lined up to get free cookies and juice while missing chem and millions of people lined up to see Gram stoker's movie. Here are some scenes of Shep's own vampires. Thanks to Mr. Edwards for organizing the event.

A black and white photograph showing a large, framed portrait of Elvis Presley on a wall. He is wearing a white shirt and a dark tie, looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. To the right of the portrait, a person in a white, fluffy mascot costume is standing. The mascot has a large, round head with a single large eye and a wide, toothy grin. It is wearing a dark jersey with the number 1 on the front. The mascot is positioned as if it is about to interact with or touch the portrait. The background is dark and indistinct, suggesting an indoor setting like a hallway or a stage.

Western Days

In October the S.U. held its annual western days. The bull riding and root beer chug were Earl's favorite events.

Photos by Miami Mishina, R. Jones, Susan May, and Linh Nguyen.

Music Events

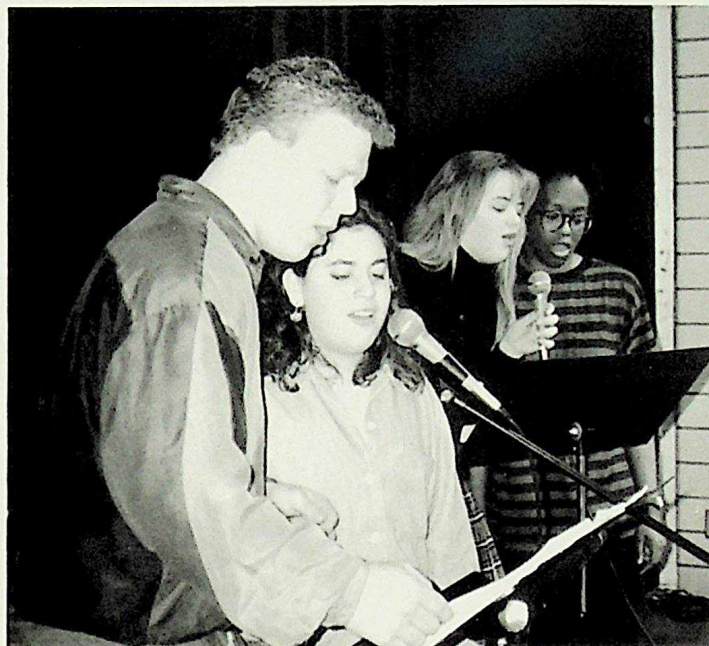

In October the music department put on a band camp for interested students. It was held at Sunset point at Alberta Beach and it was an opportunity to study certain instruments under specialist instructors. Of particular interest was the KOTO drums session. Medieval music was supplied by Chanticleer and the sing along around the campfire was a blast.

Photos by Scott Rogal, Susan May, and R. Jones.

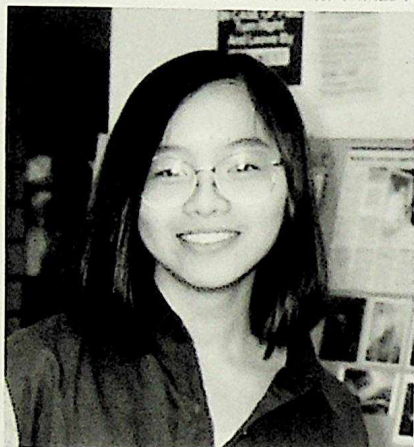

At the Sunnyhills pep rally in September the choir lead the best and loudest "O Canada" Shep has heard for years.

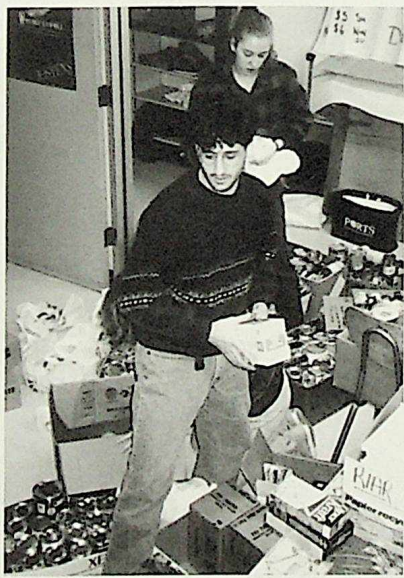

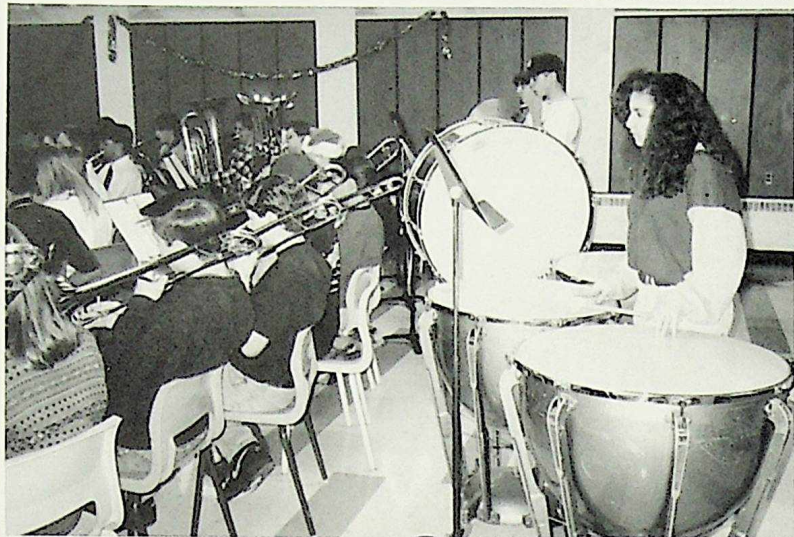

Festival of Trees

Our entry into the festival of trees this year was an origami wreath designed by Alfia Lau. It won an honorable mention, was auctioned, and the proceeds went to the university hospital. Congratulations to the following helpers: Lisa Andreychuk, Edith Chu, Jeff Cotton, Sheryl Courtoreille, Elena Grad, Vicki Tranzas, Alexia Vlavianas, and Mai.

The festive winter season rolled around this year with its usual flourish. Once again this year Shep helped provide the less fortunate with much needed food in an incredibly successful food drive. Our "sweet tooth"es were eagerly satisfied with gingerbread men and BIG candy canes. And, everyone was allowed to wear the notorious Christmas colors safely on red and green day. Hope all had a jolly holiday!

Valentine's Day

Roses are red,
Daisies are yellow,
Look at those girls
And those snazzy fellows.
Hand in hand,
they walk down the street;
Forever in love,
Or at least for this week.
With chocolate and flowers
We see them and say,
"So many in "love"
It must be Valentine's day"

30 Hour Famine

The thirty hour famine was a benevolent endeavor to help those who are less fortunate. 153 conscientious students took part in a 30 hour fast to raise money. 27 students stayed overnight at Ross Sheppard. These students were entertained by Rapid Fire theatre and the Edmonton Juggling Club. Also, students engaged in a poster painting contest with Edmonton Parks and Recreation and Native Canadian beading with Elly Cadieux from Sacred Circle. A pancake breakfast was enjoyed by all. This event was covered live by CBC 740 Radio. Special thanks to the chief organizer and photographer, Mr. Arkless.

Jousting

What started out as an innocent joust, turned out to be a bloody and brutal battle. Mr. Devlin's English 30 class dressed up in their bizarre garb to prepare for this event. Amazingly no limbs were lost.

-S.M. Courtoreille

Carter G. Woodson created Black History Week, which later expanded to black history month, on February 7, 1926. On February 24, 1993, Ross Sheppard hosted a black history presentation, organized by Richard Okolo to educate those of African descent and those of other cultures to the beauty, diversity and strength of black people.

Guest speakers included, Mr. Caskenette, Etournam Dugbazah, Minister Faust, Ellen Odai and David Cox.

Students in attendance got a chance to learn about the unrecognized accomplishments and contributions of Black people throughout history. The Black history month presentation gave Ross Sheppard students a glimpse at what black history and culture is all about.

Black History Month

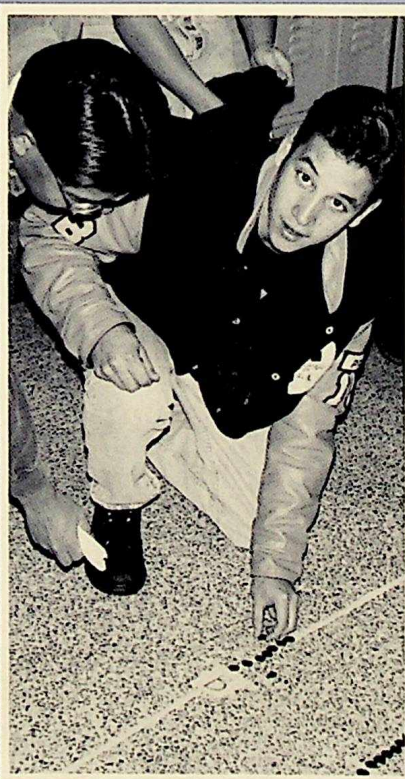

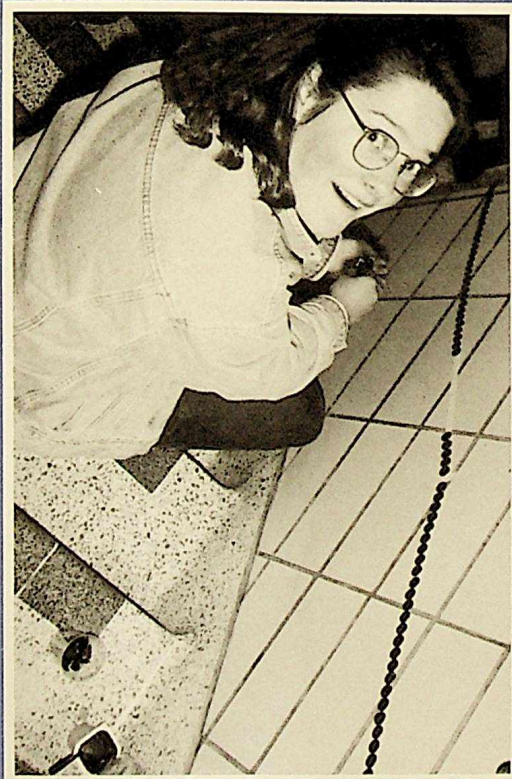

Penny Relay

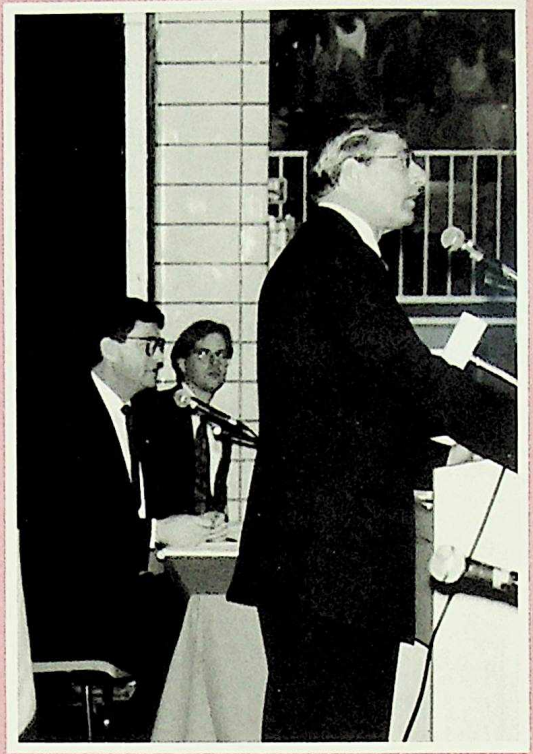

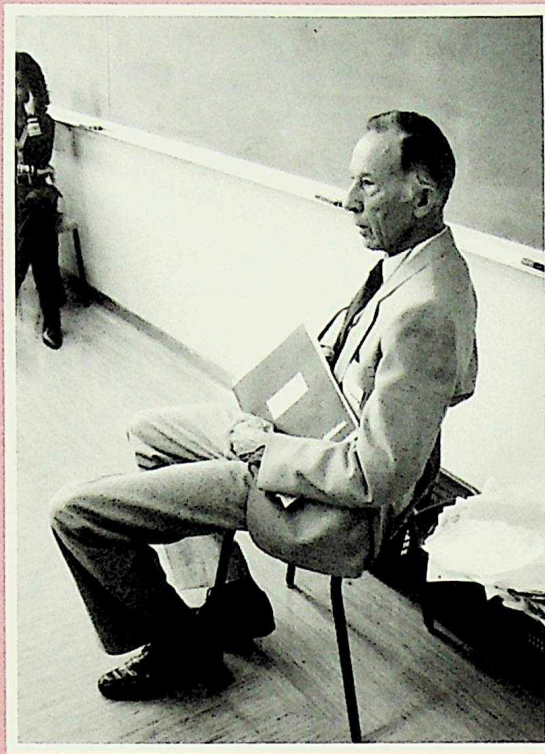

The "Battle of the Sexes," Penny Relay was held on November 5th to raise money for Shep's foster child. The girls won by a landslide, almost 120m compared to the guys 60m. Way to go ladies!

Natalie Hotrum

Arumugam

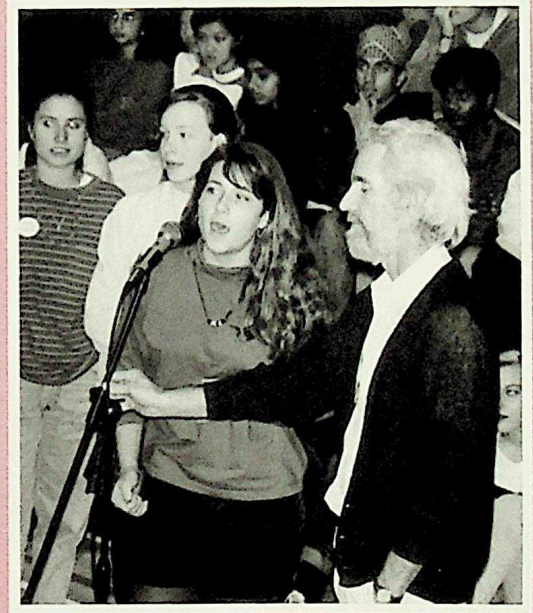

Arumugam is Ross Sheppard's male Foster Child from Sooranoor, India. He is seven years old and lives at home with his mother, father, and two other sisters. Arumugam is now attending school. He is a very keen student and is gaining much knowledge of agriculture and the ways of managing it. Arumugam hopes to become a better farmer. Arumugam is thankful for Ross Sheppard Students' involvement in his community and his family well being. (Our continuous support will ensure Arumugam develops as a normal child among the poverty conditions he and his family faces everyday. Arumugam in his letters wishes the best for everybody and hopes that one day he may be able to thank us for our support.

Aldermanic Forum

Since 1971 Ross Sheppard has hosted a municipal election forum. This year's forum was bigger and better than ever, with over 40 candidates discussing election issues with various groups of students. Staff and students at Ross Sheppard believe that we've had an important impact on the election outcome and in expressing our concerns.

Referendum Debate

On October 26, 1992 Canadians were asked to vote in an important referendum. Although in the end Canadians rejected the Charlottetown Accord, Ross Sheppard students were provided with important insight into the dilemma facing Canadians. Ian McClelland, from the Reform Party and Jim Edwards, a PC MP, debated the issue for the students and then opened the floor to any questions.

President's Message

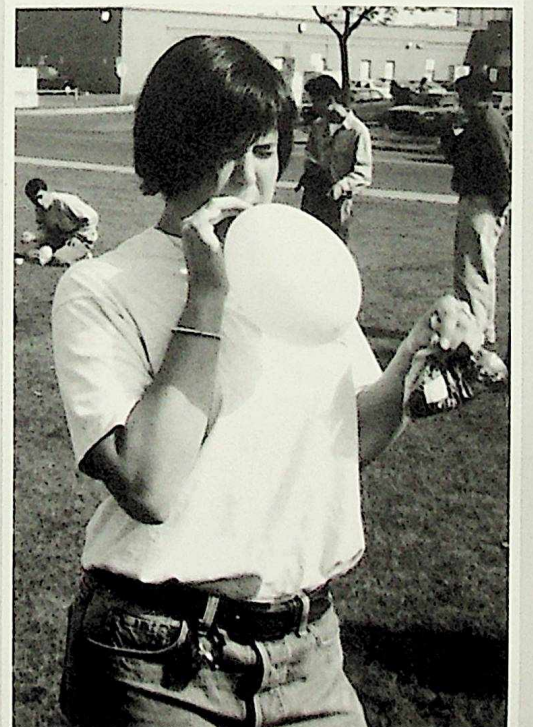

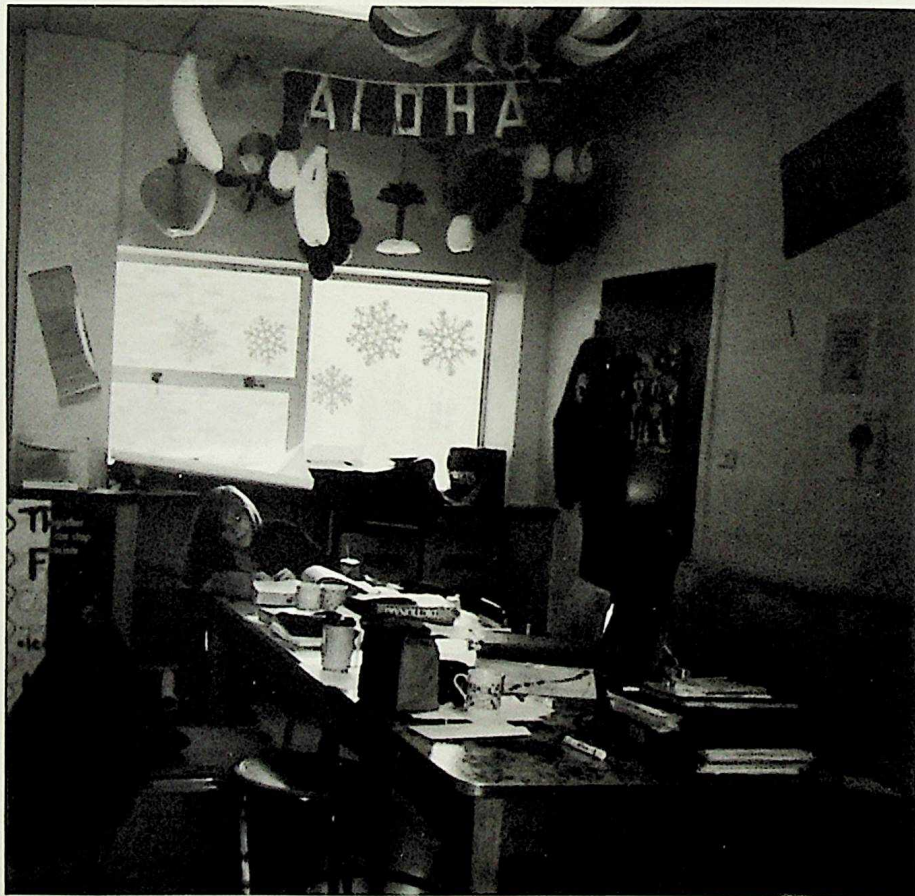

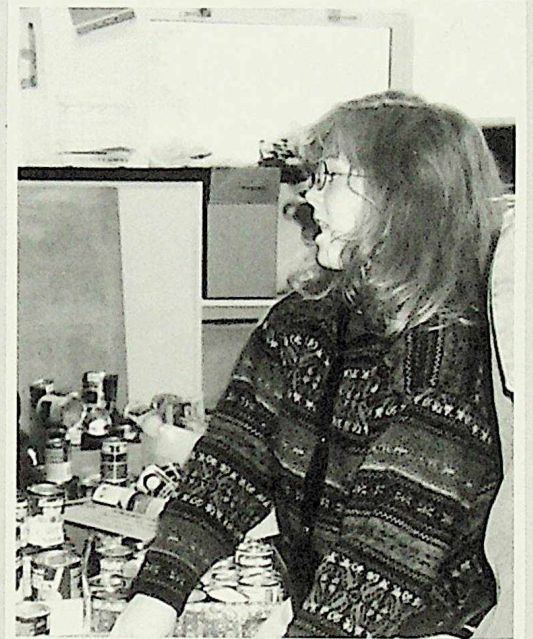

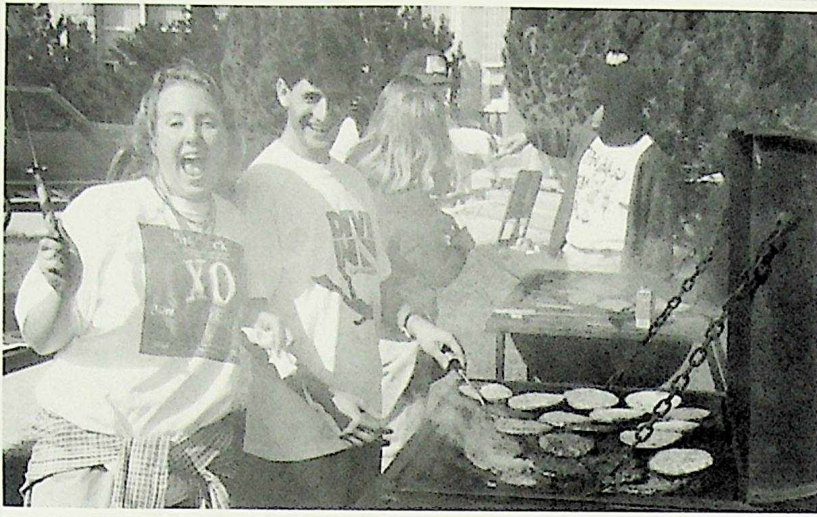

Another year has gone by quickly, yet slowly at the same time. Filled with so many memories, 92-93 has been great fun!! I hope everyone can look back and think about all of the wonderful people and times.

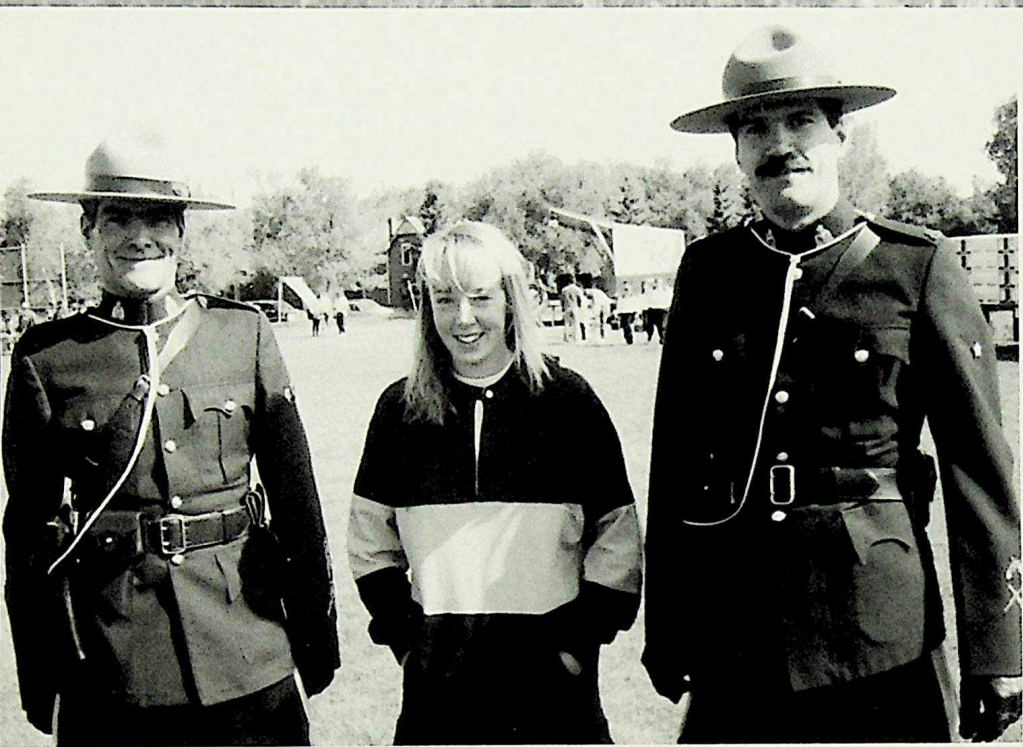

A special thank-you to this year's council and our advisors Mr. Cochrane, Mr. Liguori and Mrs. Melney. It's been wonderful working with you! the support and cooperation of the staff and administration has also helped to create a successful and memorable year. Last, but certainly not least, a super huge thank-you to all of you, the students of Shep, for participating and making this a year to remember.

Carry on the Shep spirit wherever you go in the future. Best of luck and thanks for everything! We're all stars!

Well, the yearbook is almost done, Julie and I are still friends, and I still have my sanity (mostly). I guess it couldn't have been all that bad. In fact now that we're so close to the end, I may even go as far as to THANK Mr. Jones for conning me into the job. Of course, once I thank one person I must thank them all. Mom - who probably did more typing than everyone else put together, Mr. J. Janelle, Susan, for their hard work, Julie and Mrs. L for being themselves, John Todd for the nifty Herff Jones pen and my chia pet Rex for his moral support and spiritual guidance. If you have any complaints, you may forward them to Rex.

Enjoy, Shep! & Adieu.

Marni Mishra

Co-editor Courier 92-93

Well! At last the year is almost over and the yearbook is done. It seems like only a few weeks ago that I offered my HELP to Mr. Jones. I have learned a lot this year: organization is a great skill (too bad I don't have it), grade 12 is the best year in school, and never to volunteer if you don't want to end up doing everything. But this year has been fun thanks to Mr. Jones' creativity, Mrs. Lindenberg's great jokes, and Mr. John Todd, well, being himself. I thank goodness that these three were there to guide Marni and I along with our lack of experience and incredible ability to create a disaster in the yearbook office in seconds. I'd also like to thank the 93-94 yearbook editor Janelle Ketler (assuming she gets sucked in), Marni of course, Susan May, Axl Rose, and Mrs. Mishna, sorry - Vicki, without whose help the grade 12 blurbs would not have been possible.

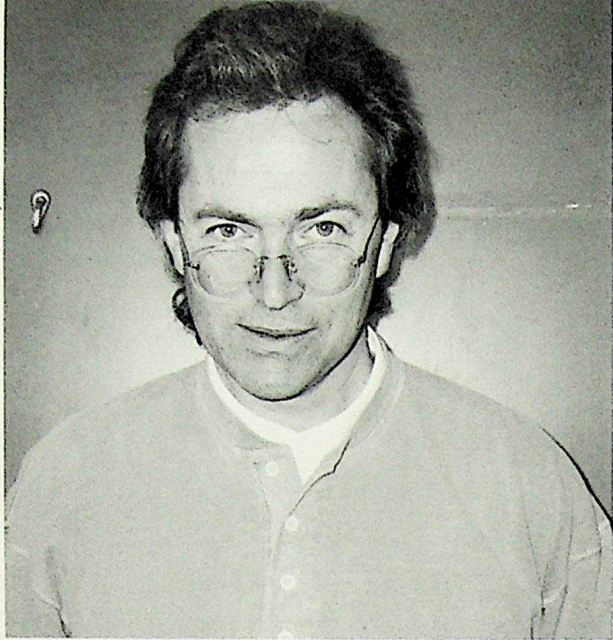

Because Shep is so full of individualists (ha ha) we decided to make the theme of the yearbook 'be yourself'. This may not have been apparent being harder to portray than we first expected. And to any hopeful 93-94 yearbook helpers, please come out next year. Though I may never want to do this again, I wouldn't trade this yearbook year for anything.

Enjoy the book.

Amnesty International

Amnesty International is an independent worldwide organization which seeks the protection of human rights. It seeks the release of prisoners of conscience (people who are detained for their beliefs, colour, sex, ethnic origin, language, or religion, who have not used or advocated violence). It works for fair and prompt trials for all political prisoners. It opposes the death penalty and torture of all prisoners.

This year, our AI group wrote many letters during the Indigenous Peoples of America campaign. This campaign was to mark the 500th anniversary of Christopher Columbus' discovery of the Americas. As well as writing letters, we have done some fundraising (a bake sale and donation boxes).

Earth Club 1992-93

E.A.R.T.H. Club enjoyed another fun year of environmental awareness this year. In addition to our duties as recyclers of paper, we enjoyed the lighter side of green at Bikefest '92 and experienced hard core Spider plant growing. We had a handful of speakers talk to our dedicated group again this year and travelled to conferences. As well, a division of E.A.R.T.H. travelled around to various schools promoting the wonders of worm composting. Thank you to the small crew that worked dance concessions, loaded paper, made posters and sold everything from "The Edge" to 100% recycled Christmas cards.

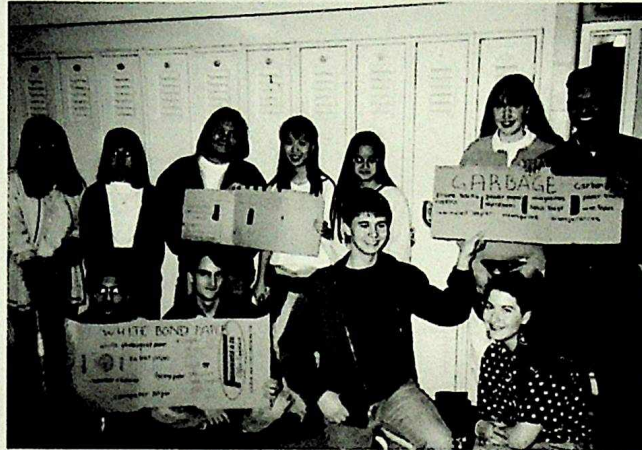

It is our hope that not only our club will get involved in an environmental lifestyle, but all of Ross Sheppard and everyone else that is not already.

Keep the Green Spirit alive,

Towing

There is quite clearly a shortage of parking space at Shep for the constantly growing number of students that drive. This sometimes increases the temptation to park in areas that we are not allowed to. Tsk, tsk. But the pool and the ice rink always get their revenge ... Students cram in the windows to watch the cars file away one by one on the back of the almighty tow trucks. Particularly large crowds are drawn when 36 cars are towed away in error.

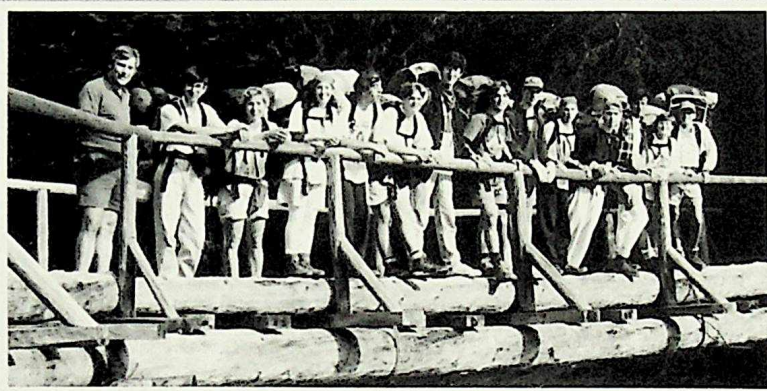

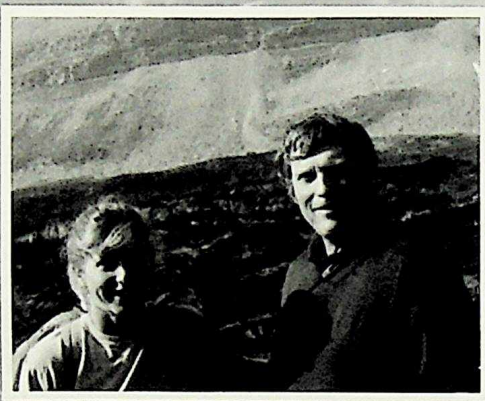

Outdoor Pursuits 1992-93

We had a great year with lots of activities and a good time was had by all. In the fall we went hiking in Lake Louise, mountain biking in Jasper and backpacking in Mount Robson, where Patrick Finlay took an involuntary midnight dip in the lake and some of us took a shower in Emperor falls. This winter we went climbing at the U of A several times and we took a winter survival course near Edson.

Math Contests

At least once a month a small group of Shep students come together and experience some people's worst nightmare - extra math. For fun no less! What else could this masochistic group be other than the math contest people. A tradition of excellence precedes the group, Shep having several achievements in the various contests such as the Alberta High School Contest (Joseph and Khaled made it to the second round this year!), the monthly Canadian National Math League contest and the Canadian Math Contest series (Cayley, Fermat, Euclid and Descartes) from Waterloo. Good work this year gang!

Lip Sync

Lip sync this year was more exciting than usual with its spontaneous group entries and Mrs. Armstrong in her plaid singing her heart out to "I'm a Lumberjack". Air guitar raised money for the winning group's favourite charity. The winners this year were everyone's favourite group of girls, Furnace Face.

Debate & Speech

This year Ross Sheppard's Debate and Speech Club was involved in: debate tournaments, speech competitions for Edmonton area Rotary Clubs, a model United Nations Assembly, a mock trial competition, as well as demonstrating debates for Edmonton Public Schools. Our Club provides students with the opportunity to hone skills in critical thinking, communication and leadership; at the same time this participation is challenging and entertaining. Next year the National Tournament will be held in Moncton, N.B. and we are hoping to send a team.

Chess Club

The chess club has had a successful year. We have a 25 round tournament, and many casual players. We are expecting to do well in the city-wide tournament on Feb. 28, 1993. In the future, we hope to introduce more people to the beauty and serenity of chess. We would like to thank Mr. Pansegrau and the students for making this club a success.

Secrets

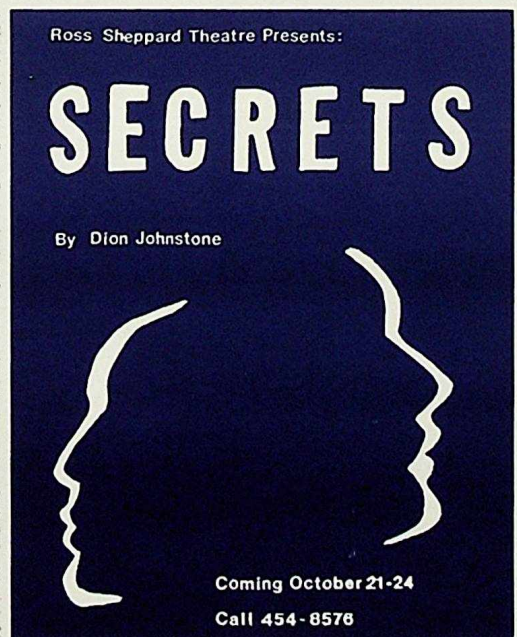

1992-93 was an exciting year for Shep Drama, and I was more than honoured to be able to direct my own play SECRETS as our season opener. SECRETS featured a dynamic cast and crew who, along with myself, worked together to put on a difficult production. The play focused on subjects relative to people our age, such as loneliness, abuse and sexuality.

Special moments included bathing the front row of the audience in smoke on closing night, courtesy of our own smoke machine. (It was an accident, honest!) All in all, the SECRETS experience was one to remember.

Drama 10 Night

The grade 10's put on a great show at the beginning of this year. The Drama 10 Night was put together by Ms. Fitzgerald to show parents what the students had learned in the first term. All of the students were included and did skits or class assignments. Admission was a donation to the Food Bank.

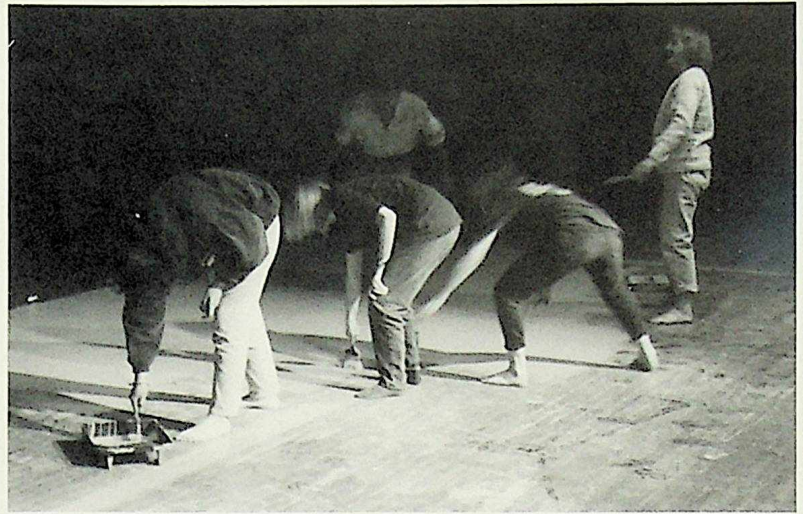

Alice in

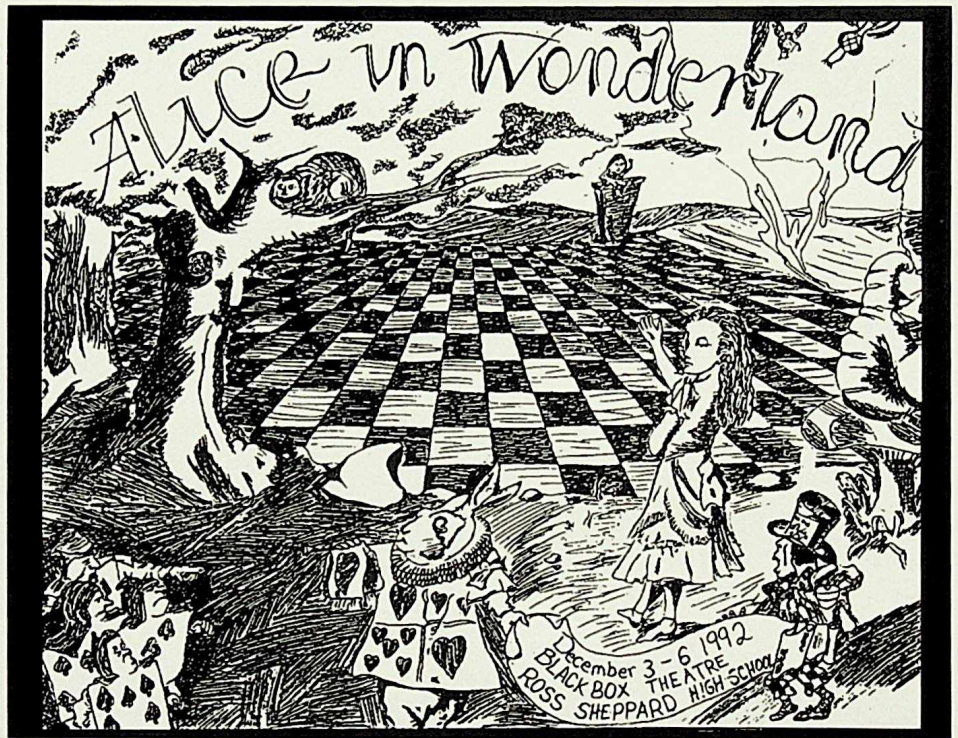

Put simply, this show was ... an experience. With one of the largest cast and crew this school has ever seen or dared. We began rehearsals in October and right from the beginning it seemed everything was going wrong but we kept the faith and prayed for a miracle. And that miracle happened.

This show will be memorable to everyone for different reasons. We explored new territory in all aspects of the stage, some of us more than others. Some learned how to sing as they never sang before. Dion learned that things aren't always as easy as they look. We all grew really close and friendships were made to remember. In the beginning we wished it would end, and in the end we wished it would last forever ... and for the last time ... "This is your 10 minute call ... SHUT-UP!!!"

The 1993 volleyball season was an extremely rewarding experience for all of the players, managers and coaching staff. The twelve players chosen from over 70 potential players, quickly established the team effort, attitude and commitment that led them to the city finals, after a successful season. The players should take pride in their development both personally and as a team.

One of the highlights this season was the Lindsay Thurber Tournament in Red Deer. We faced stiff competition from all angles. Thanks to Leanne's special popcorn balls we managed to pull together and stay positive when we really needed to. Although we didn't win, we had great support from the guys' team and our wonderful coaches.

Also, we had a few laughs - especially when I accidentally took off my shorts in the gym!

What a season! The Senior boys, led by captain Brian (Beaks) Sherban got off to a slow start. With hard work, and dedication the team showed a true desire to win and after upsetting Harry Ainlay, went on to take fifth place in Alberta.

The Junior girls kicked butt this season of all the teams but our rival Ainlay. We participated in 3 tournaments finishing 1st, 2nd, and 3rd! We wouldn't have done this well if it weren't for the 14 players with unbelievable talent and personalities, our 2 managers, and of course our coaches Miss Ferry and Nancy Gibson. This season was fun, successful, and unforgettable. Thanks for a great season!

This year's Jr. Boys' Basketball team was very successful, losing only one game in regular season play. We didn't just learn basketball this season - we learned a lesson in life. Our coach, Mr. Dave Youngs, taught us to respect ourselves and the team. I know that everyone would like to thank him for his efforts and his support. He made us work hard to achieve our goals, but unfortunately we were upset in the quarterfinals by J. Percy Page by only one point. None the less, we worked hard and enjoyed the season!

A special thanks to Coach Noreen Baker, Assistant Coaches Sherry Melney, Leeann Lennon and Mark Liguori who all worked very hard to help make this season a "Rockin one"!

Sunny Hills

Fullerton 92633

No, it's not some over-publicized prime time soap. What it is, is a small city in Orange County, just south of Los Angeles, full of palm trees and warm weather. But more than that, Fullerton is the home of the state champion Sunny Hills Lancers. Remember them? Yes the very same Lancers that played the T-Birds here at Coronation, that subjected themselves to curious stares and enjoyed Canadian hospitality and culture, turned out to be state champs. But, as too few people realized, these Californians weren't celebrities. They were teenagers just like us, and they enjoyed their visit just as much as we enjoyed having them.

Their trip in Canada lasted one week. They arrived in Calgary on September 19 and toured the province before making it to Edmonton on the 22nd. On the 23rd the school was treated to its first glimpse of them as they practised on the Arena field before the two teams met on the 24th at a dinner/barbecue and exchanged gifts. Finally the visit culminated in the "Thunder bowl" on the 25th followed by a dance, both of which set attendance records for Shep this year. The weekend was spent building more friendships and learning about teen life "across the border", before having to say good-bye on the 27th.

The Lancers experienced many new things in Canada such as clean water, clean air, ice skating, cold weather and moshing. They stayed in our homes, played on our field and enjoyed the recognition given to them by all of us. And so, plans are being made for a return trip. Thanks must be given to the parent volunteers, school administration, coaches, players, cheerleaders and the numerous fans who made the Lancers visit here so successful. Thank you all for making that one September week so memorable.

T-Bird X-Country had another fun, and successful year. Considering that the boys and the girls aggregate both came in second place, and that seven T-birds made it on to the Edmonton zone team for the provincial Championships, it really was a great season! The rest of the team included ... Tom Shearer, Ifor Morris, Ross Stirling Marni Mishna, Thom McDonnell, Themis Gitesos, Jamie Ross, Lee Lodewyk, Karin Hancheruk, Shainul Waljee, Farrah Rashid, Adrien Cho, Peter Inglis, Oren Katz, Mr. Liguori and, of course, Mr. Hak.

Throughout the course of the year, our team has had the pleasure to enjoy many candid moments displayed by each cheerleader. Through bumbled stunts, powerful high kicks, clumsy running and even lost articles, this year has been an unforgettable one.

On behalf of the team we would like to extend thanks to our great coaches, Leo Samure and Leah Roy for all of their help and mainly for putting up with our outrageousness.

Principal's Message

The 1992 school year at Ross Sheppard is proving to be memorable in many ways. The range and quality of activities that provide opportunities for students to learn are truly impressive.

One highlight that helped us to get the year off to an exciting start was the visit from Sunny Hills High School in California. The event was an outstanding success thanks to much effort by students, parents and staff.

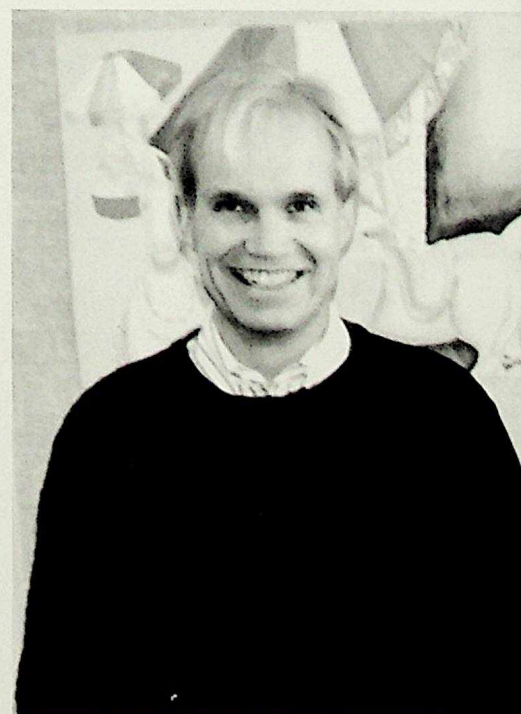

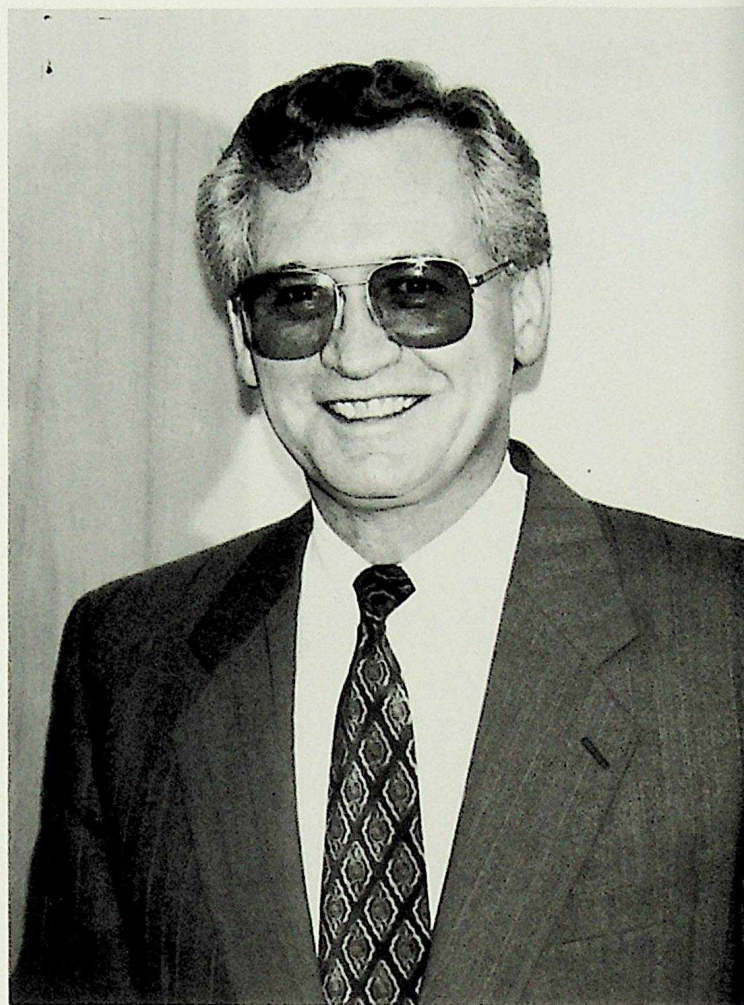

Another highlight was the assembly to hear motivational speaker Mark Sharenbroich. Mr. Sharenbroich speaks in about one hundred high schools per year and is widely viewed as being among the very best at his craft. He is totally sincere when he tells us that his visits to Ross Sheppard are remembered by him as being among the top four or five speaking experiences of his entire career that now spans well over a decade with hundreds of presentations throughout North America. Ross Sheppard students should feel very proud that collectively our student body presents such a class act in a large assembly.

I wish to thank the yearbook staff for their efforts in creating the 1993 Courier. It is always apparent when the finished product is available that producing a quality yearbook is a very large undertaking. What is not as apparent during the year is the endless hours students and staff are spending in order that all can enjoy a treasured summary of a school year. Best Wishes!

C.L. Lund
Principal

Helping Mr. Lund in "coordinator-land" are the three wonderful assistant principals, Mr. J. Edey, Mr. D. Jackson, and Mr. T. Rankel. And we must not forget Mr. Paulitsch's tour of duty while Mr. Jackson was away.
